Leader Hope is poured upon us this day!

People God is with us, always offering God's healing love.

Leader Now is the time for us to be people of action, not just those who silently sit and hear the good news.

People Now is the time to seek the good; to heal those who are broken; to offer peace and hope.

Leader Thanks be to God who has blessed us with God's abundant gifts.

People We are called to use these gifts in service to God's broken world. Let us rejoice in the mission to which God has directed us. Amen

Opening Prayer (Unison)

God of love and healing, we gather today to hear the words of your love as you touch our hearts with holy balm. Remind us that we also need to be people of hope and compassion in this world which seems so dark. You, O God, open the doors of blessings. You reveal to us the many ways in which Jesus reached out to others at their time of need. Open our hearts and let your merciful spirit dwell within us that, having heard the good news, we may bring that hope to others. Amen

Offertory Prayer (unison)

God of grace and mercy, you are the source of the true healing that can make us whole. We remember this morning that Jesus' ministry was deeply involved in both healing of people's bodies and healing of relationships. As we take time now in worship to offer our gifts to you, we pray that they might be used to bring healing – of body, of spirit, of broken relationships – to people who are in desperate need. This we pray this in Jesus' holy name. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
